

Once upon a time, in a quiet village, lived a curious boy named Arjun.
He loved reading books and exploring the forest near his home.
One day, he found a glowing stone under a tree.
The stone whispered secrets of the stars and skies.
From that day, Arjun's life changed forever.
He became the storyteller of his village.
People came from far away to hear his magical tales.